Reviews

Your program of original music blending piano, voice, keyboard, and your beautiful music along with your witty narration style both inspired and entertained our group. Everyone was very happy that they had attended the great evening event at NHRC. Thanks again for the great program.

— E. Burch, New Hackensack Ref. Church, Wappingers Falls, NY

Thanks so much for the special touch you gave to our Thanksgiving Day of Prayer program. You were a part of His divine plan to minister and we are so glad that you listened, so we could hear Him through your music and song.

— G. Orser and A. Adams, Guideposts, Carmel, NY

What a wonderful program you gave today. It was inspiring, uplifting and delightful. You are and have made such wonderful use of your limitless talents. We at HRC are truly blessed to have you with us. Only more wonderful things can come to us because of your willingness to share and give of yourself. So thank you again for making our Women's Guild program today one we will cherish. Everyone I've spoken to was thrilled with the program you presented.

— M. Hondorp, Hopewell Ref. Church, Hopewell Junction, NY

The church family and I as Pastor want to thank you for the beautiful concert you gave us. It was a mountain top experience for all of us. The variety of music you played and the use of instruments - keyboard, piano, organ and harp - were an inspiration. It was one of those special concerts that you wish would go on for another hour. Wentworth Congregational Church is honored to have you as a friend.

— Pastor D. Sweimler, Wentworth, New Hampshire

Ministry

It is Lorraine's great joy in life to reach out and connect with people through the power of music. Consider adding her to your concert schedule, booking her as a guest speaker/artist for women's events or as a musical guest for conferences or retreats. Lorraine has played for groups of thirty to one thousand, designing programs for each occasion and often writing music to go with the theme of special events.

Biography

A Manhattan School of Music graduate, Lorraine has played the great stages of Carnegie Hall and The Kennedy Center, written film and commercial scores (such as the CBS NASCAR theme), and performed in over a dozen Broadway shows. Winner of a Parents' Choice Award for her children's CD, ASCAP composition awards, and Billboard honorable mentions, her music has been featured on Guideposts' website for the past three years. Her fourth solo CD, "More Songs from Hopewell," is receiving airplay across the country. She is currently choir director, organist, and a worship leader at the Hopewell Reformed Church in Hopewell Junction, New York.

Lorraine Nelson Wolf's music has touched the hearts of many. A multi-talented composer, musician, and singer, Lorraine has traveled across the country, performing in large theaters and small church halls. Her music speaks of life's loves, losses and hopes, reaching out with a voice that is sure to touch your soul. A church musician since the age of 12, Lorraine combines her sacred background with her professional credits, offering a musical program that is as emotional as it is inspiring.
